

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

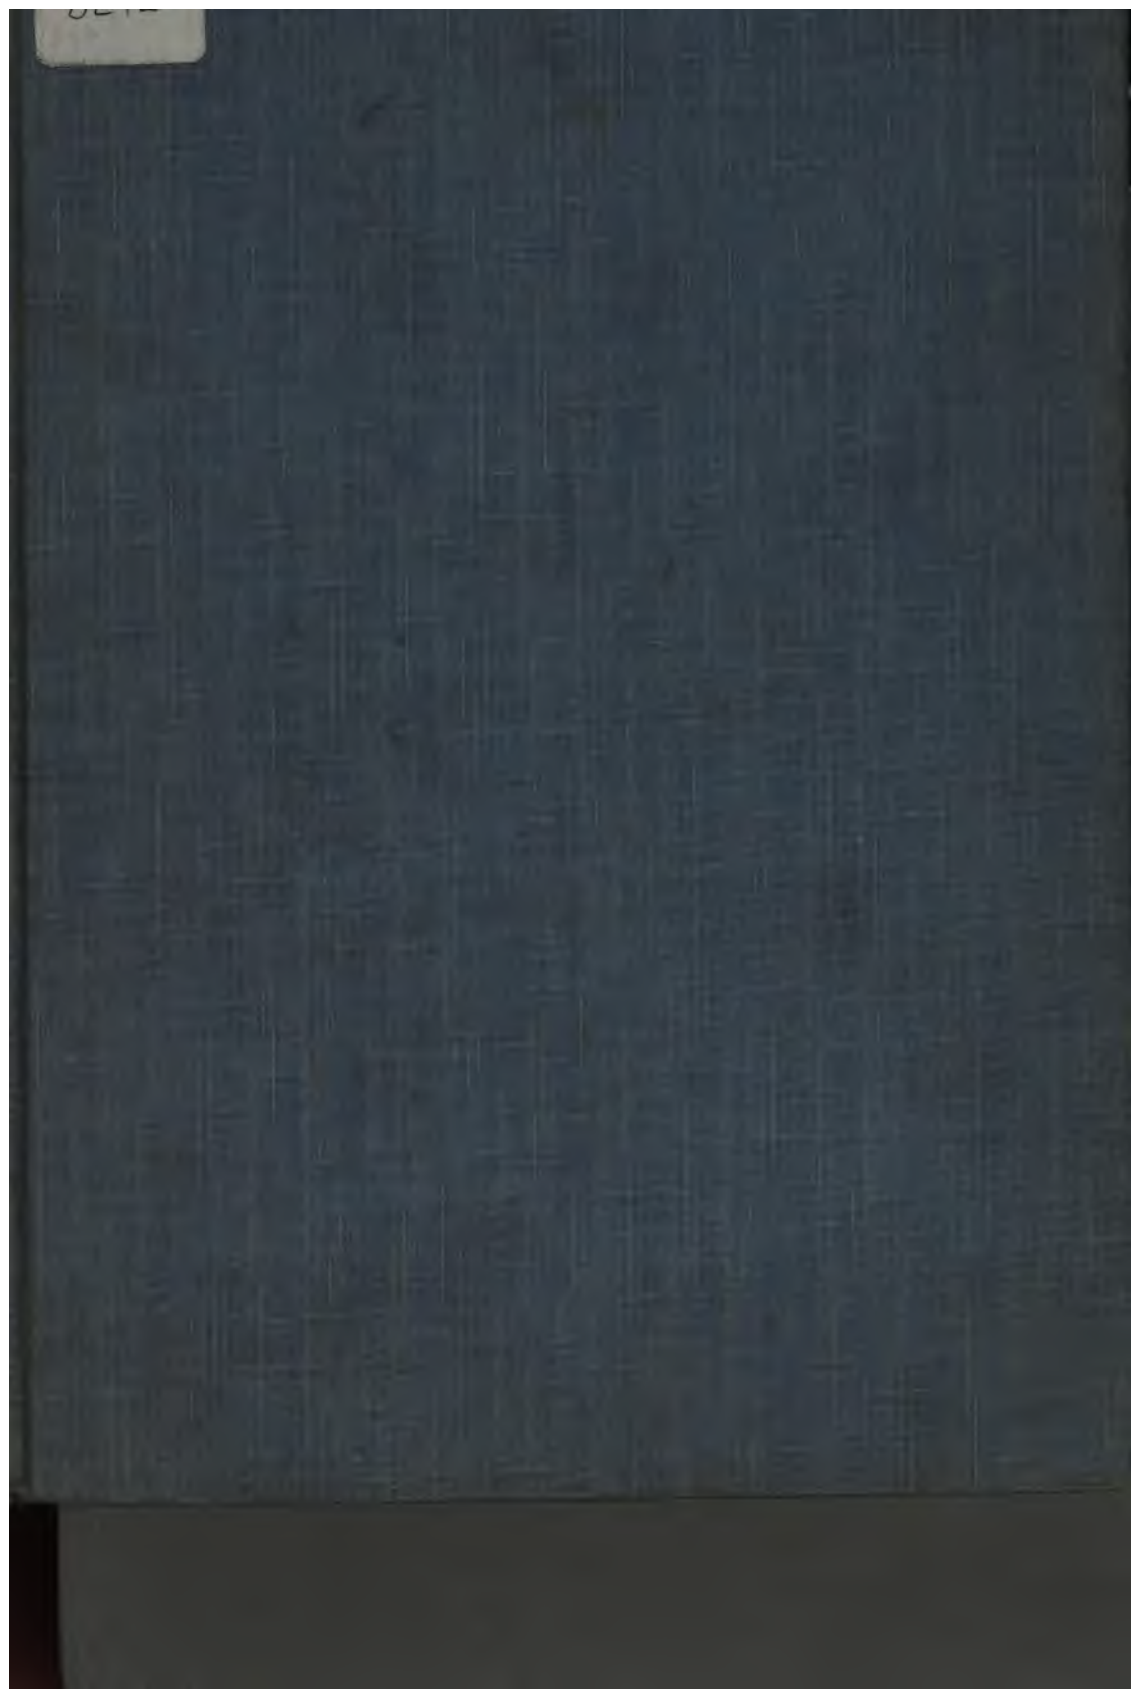

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ANOTHER notable Eton House has reached its inevitable term. These pages are dedicated to its memory, and to the man who governed and made it. For a House is made of the boys, not by them; structure and character are from the master. He works on his material, kneads out impurities, moulds into form, and stamps with his own impress. He cannot indeed transmute clay into gold, but he can bring to light the grains of precious metal which even clay contains, and give it value.

The boys come and go, but he remains. Those of our House, and their deeds, this record may redeem from complete oblivion. But no such artificial remembrance is required for "my tutor." The name of Austen Leigh has gained its sure place in Etonian tradition, and lives with the most honoured of time past. That he himself may yet long live and prosper is the affectionate wish of his grateful pupils.

PART I.

LIST OF PUPILS

(JANUARY 1904).

Mr. EDWARD COMPTON AUSTEN LEIGH, Scholar of Eton and Scholar and Fellow of King's, came to Eton as an Assistant Master for a short time in the summer of 1861, and as a permanent member of the Staff in the course of the summer following. After Election 1864, when the Rev. W. A. Carter retired, he obtained the small house in Keate's Lane adjoining Mr. William Evans', and five years later the large house in Common Lane, which he occupied till the end of 1903. He became Lower Master in 1887.

The pupils first entered with him were Wyvill and Portal. But their names do not stand at the head of the following list, as school order is followed. The dates, except where otherwise specified, are those of the boys' coming to Eton. But not all were Mr. Austen Leigh's pupils from the first, nor did a great number actually come into his pupil-room till they had attained a sufficient standing in the School. He took, as tutor, no boys in the Lower School, and seldom in his later years any below Remove.

AN EPITOME OF THE HOUSE RECORDS.

Authorities: the House Books, supplemented by the The Eton College Chronicle.

The House Books were begun by Formby in January 1871; if there was an earlier one, it has disappeared. The records are well kept throughout the first volume, which ends with Bainbridge's captaincy in 1882. Afterwards they lack fulness until H. W. Hodgson's time, 1886, while E. L. Churchill restores the House Lists, wanting since 1882. In 1894 G. O. C. Edwards enters the records at very great length, but unfortunately he bequeathed to his successors the idea of keeping the accounts of football, cricket, and shooting in subsidiary volumes, which were soon lost; so that the chronicles till 1899 only give details about athletics. The year 1899-1900, in which the Football Cup was won a fourth time, is a complete blank; then L. E. Bury and Cosens keep them fairly well, but the Easter Half of 1903 has only the House List, and the Summer Half is recordless. Brand has left an adequate account for the final Half.

House Colours. The first, dark green and brown stripes; the later, adopted in 1870, purple and scarlet stripes margined by narrow ones of yellow.

With a limit of thirteen, many of them Lower Boys, the small House never had the chance of distinction. It entered for the Football Cup in 1867, but was beaten in the first ties by Dupuis'. Patton, Romilly, Fawkes, and Powell, to quote the Chronicle, did all they knew, and the match was a better one than the large adverse score, three goals and three rouges, would represent. A match against Vidal's is recorded in the previous year, lost by a rouge only. The team then included:

Patton,
Mr. Romilly,
Fenwick,
Johnstone,
Powell,
Formby,

Portal,
Fawkes,
Tugwell,
Cocks ma.,
Cocks mi.

Two individuals of renown were Johnstone and Patton. The former rowed in the Eight in 1868 and 1869, was fourth in the School Sculling and Pulling in the former year, and third in the latter event with his fellow-pupil, F. A. Currey, in 1869. In the same year he was Master of the Beagles. In the School Steeplechase he was successively fifth, third and first, third in the Mile in 1867, and second in the Mile and Quarter in 1868. In Field Choices in his last year he stood eleventh. Patton was in the Field in 1867, and Keeper of it in the two following years, and in Oppidan Wall 1869. He won the Junior Sculling, and was fourth in the School Mile and third in the Quarter in 1868, and second in the Mile, Walking Race, and Quarter in 1869. He shot for the School his two last years.

Portal, after distinguishing himself as a steerer, attained the leisured dignity of the Monarch in 1868. R. W. Powell was a thoroughly good football player.

Patton and Romilly entered for the House Fives in 1868, but were beaten in the first ties by Evans'. The next year Patton and Johnstone entered, and were beaten in the first ties by Browning's, but only after one of the most exciting matches on record. After the score had reached game all and 14 all, each side had five innings; in the end the spectators got in Johnstone's way and spoilt his cut. The victors reached the final.

The House was second in 1869 for the Shooting Cup just presented; Patton, Formby and Howard shot.

1869-70.

The large House at its inception was formless. Two-thirds of its members were Lower Boys. Though Patton was Keeper of the Field and the best player in the School, he would not enter for the Football Cup. Cornish's, however, with whom the House played, was beaten by a goal and two rouges to a goal. H. J. A. Eyre, Alleyne, and Harbord are mentioned. After Patton left at Christmas, there was not even a boat-colour in the House. The only person approaching distinction was Formby, who was in the Shooting XI.

1870-1.

Captain of the House, John Formby (Sixth Form): he was in the Shooting XI., and won the Spencer Cup.

Football. The House entered for the Cup, but was beaten in the first ties by Snow's. H. J. A. Eyre was Captain, and he and his brother and Alleyne are favourably mentioned. Most noticeable, perhaps, is the appearance in the team of that afterwards famous player, Lindsay Bury, at the age of 13.

Cricket. Alleyne was 13th in Upper Club Choices. For the Cup, the House beat Hale's in the first ties, Alleyne making the phenomenal scores of 106 and 105 not out. In the second ties it was beaten by Browning's, who had two of the XI. playing, one of them making 136. The House only played one innings, when Alleyne made 36 not out in a total of 68. F. G. Bury was the most successful bowler.

1871-2.

Captain of the House, W. H. Myers (Div. II.).

Football. H. J. A. Eyre was again Captain. For the Cup, the House played a good match against Wayte's, winning, contrary to expectation, by one goal, obtained by R. T. Bright. Alleyne and Earle (first of the name) also distinguished themselves. In the second ties Warre's eleven, which reached the final, was too strong. The House again beat Cornish's, but lost a match against Drury's.

Athletics. F. J. Patton and J. Formby presented Cups to the House for a Quarter-Mile and Steeplechase respectively; the annual results are recorded at the end hereof.

Cricket. Alleyne played for the XI. in three matches, Harbord for the second XI., H. J. A. Eyre and F. G. Bury for the XXII. The House beat Marindin's in the first ties for the Cup, Orde scoring 61, but lost to Dupuis' in the second.

1872-3.

Captain of the House, W. H. Myers (Sixth Form).

In the XI., H. P. Alleyne.

In Upper Boats, A. T. Bright (Victory).

In the Shooting XI., H. Earle.

Master of the Beagles, Hon. C. Harbord.

Football. Coached by Alleyne and Harbord in combined bully play, the team did very well. It beat Wolley-Dod's in the first ties by three goals, Harbord, Bright and Chance receiving particular mention. In the second ties the match was against a strong eleven from Durnford's. Though weaker on paper the House had the best of it until an unfortunate accident deprived it of the services of its doughty post, W. A. P. Cust, who broke his leg in a bully near Durnford's line. Alleyne also was partially disabled. In spite of these misfortunes Durnford's could only score one rouge, obtained just before time. "Where all played so well," runs the record, "it would be invidious to pick out any one especially. But it would not be inappropriate to add that the good play of our eleven was mainly owing to the energy of Mr. Leigh himself, as it was entirely through his kindness in getting up so many matches against us, that we ultimately played so well even under such manifest disadvantages."

The House beat Cornish's, deprived of two of its best men, by three goals.

Aquatics. A. T. Bright rowed in the winning Trial Eight and the losing Upper Eight, Goodhart and Pryor in Lower Eights, and the former in the winning Lower Four. These three and Chance practised for House Fours, but wisely refrained from starting.

Cricket. Alleyne played against Harrow, but not against Winchester. Orde (11th in Upper Club Choices) and F. G. Bury played for the XXII., and the former kept wicket in one match for the School.

For the House Cup an overwhelming victory was scored over Mitchell's, who only made 21 and 40. Orde made 38, and Alleyne took 15 wickets. In the second ties Buckland's bowling for Drury's proved too strong, and the House was beaten by three wickets. Alleyne made 27, L. Bury 21, F. G. Bury 18; the first named took 11 wickets out of the 15 that fell. The House scores were 48 and 61; a bowlers' match.

1873-4.

Captains of the House, W. A. P. Cust till Christmas, then L. M. Powell, both in Sixth Form.

In Upper Boats, A. T. Bright (Captain of the St. George), J. F. Chance (Prince of Wales).

Football. The House was beaten in the first ties for the Cup by Marindin's. L. Bury and Chance are specially mentioned. It lost a match with Mitchell's, but tied with Cornish's; on the latter occasion H. A. Ormsby-Gore broke a sinew of his leg as the result of a fine charge.

Fives. F. G. Bury and H. P. Harris entered for the House Fives, and survived the first ties; Warre's beat them in the second.

Shooting. Henry Earle presented a Cup to be shot for by the House. It could not be competed for this year, the butts in the latter part of the Lent Half being closed.

Aquatics. Bright rowed in the losing Trial Eight and Upper Eight.

Cricket. For the Cup, the House beat Marindin's in the first ties, thanks to the prowess of the two Burys with both bat and ball, but lost to Vidal's in the second. Score not kept.

1874-5.

Captain of the House, L. M. Powell (Sixth Form).

Also in Sixth Form, F. G. Bury.

Newcastle Select, L. M. Powell and J. F. Chance.

In the VIII., A. T. Bright (Captain of the Prince of Wales).

Also in Upper Boats, J. F. Chance (Monarch).

In Upper Club Choices, F. G. Bury 13th, L. Bury 16th.

In the Field, L. Bury and A. T. Bright.

In Fives' Choices, L. Bury 7th, F. G. Bury 9th.

Football. The team was a good one, but before the Cup ties began had the misfortune to lose the services of C. M. Newton, who broke his leg in a scratch match, the third accident of the kind in three successive years. His loss made all the difference when it came to the close contest in the third round. Cameron's, a weak team, were beaten easily in the first ties, Rouse's in the second, Chance and Bright securing goals, and the latter a rouge. The next match was against Dalton's. Chance obtained a goal early, but Dalton's equalized just before time in rather lucky fashion out of a loose bully in front of goal. Next day the ground was extremely muddy. Dalton's obtained a rouge, and for the remainder of the time persistently kicked the ball out, thus maintaining their advantage. After the Captain (Lindsay Bury) and Bright, F. G. Bury (14th in Field Choices) was the most valuable member of the team; Chance, Powell, and Marsh, and Newton previously to his accident, also did good work.

In the Lent Half a match was played against Browning's, and was won by two rouges.

Fives. In the School competition the two Burys reached the 4th heat, but could not stand against Alfred Lyttelton and Forbes; in the House Fives they were only beaten in the final by Dupuis'.

Aquatics. Bright stroked the losing Trial Eight, and rowed bow at Henley.

Cricket. The House beat A. C. James' in the first Cup ties, but lost in the second to Mitchell's, scoring 16 and 77. A bright sun behind the bowler's arm was the cause of the failure in the first innings.

1875-6.

Captain of the House, L. Bury (Sixth Form).

Newcastle Select, L. H. Cust.

In Upper Boats, E. M. Pilkington (Victory).

In the XI., L. Bury.

In Field and Mixed Wall, L. Bury and A. T. Bright.

Football. But for the most cruel luck the House might well have won the Cup this year, there being no longer a Lyttelton at Evans'. The later ties, owing to floods and snow, had to be postponed till the Easter Half, when the House lost the invaluable services of Bright, who left at Christmas. Nevertheless it beat Hale's in the 4th ties, and met Evans' in the final. The latter having obtained a rouge in the first half, after change, the record runs, "the play became very vigorous, Marsh and Harris playing splendidly, while Darbshire, like Tydeus of old, μικρὸς μὲν ἦν δέμας, ἀλλὰ μαχητὴς (small in body, but pugnacious), flying indiscriminately among the ranks of the enemy, and putting them to flight continually: but all their valour availed not, for shortly before time another rouge was obtained by Abraham for Miss Evans', and soon turned into a goal." Daniel, Lopes, T. Pilkington, and St. Quintin are also mentioned, "indeed there was no one on the side who did not distinguish himself more or less, each doing the best he could, and working hard to the last."

The team was composed as follows:

L. Bury,

[A. T. Bright,]

H. P. Harris,

W. S. C.-Marsh,

H. Y. B. Lopes,

T. E. Pilkington,

E. M. Pilkington,

H. T. Daniel,

F. A. Darbshire,

W. F. Parker,

F. H. D. St. Quintin,

C. R. S.-Dickins, 12th man.

Athletics. Bury was second with the Weight, third with the Hammer and Cricket Ball and in the High Jump.

Fives. Bury reached the fifth, and Harris the fourth ties in the School Competition. They won the House Fives, beating Cameron's (two Studds) in the final.

Aquatics. E. M. Pilkington rowed bow in the winning Upper Eight, was third in the Sculling, and fourth in the Pulling. A. G. Churchill (Dreadnought) rowed in the winning Lower Eight.

Cricket. Bury played for the XI., making 72 at Lord's, and taking 3 wickets. The House beat Marindin's in the first ties for the Cup by 6 wickets, Bury scoring 50 not out in the 2nd innings and taking 11 wickets, while St. Quintin took 8. In the second ties on a soaking pitch Tarver's started with 106 runs for no wickets, but were all out next day for 147; however the House was beaten in an innings. Durant took 3 wickets in this match, Bury 6. T. Pilkington, Daniel and Lopes were the best bats after Bury.

1876-7.

Captain of the House, E. M. Pilkington (Sixth Form).

Also in Sixth Form, L. H. Cust.

Stroke of the VIII., E. M. Pilkington (Captain of the Hibernia).

Also in Upper Boats, A. G. Churchill (Victory); he was given his blue, but forbidden to row, for which reason the project of a House Four was given up.

In Field and Oppidan Wall (13th in Mixed Wall Choices), W. S. Chisenhale-Marsh.

Football. In the ties for the Cup the House beat Tarver's by a goal to a rouge, but were quite overmatched by Mozley's. After Marsh, the Captain, W. F. Parker at post, T. Pilkington behind, and Darbishire were the strongest.

House Fives. L. H. Cust and Marsh were beaten in the first ties by Evans'.

Aquatics. Pilkington stroked the winning Trial Eight, the losing Upper Eight, and the Eight, and was fourth in the Pulling.

Cricket. The House team had some good cricketers in embryo, but was not able to beat Mozley's in the first ties. W. Earle, going in last, did his best to avert defeat by scoring 19 out of 39 in the first innings. F. H. D. St. Quintin (Captain) and Durant each took 5 wickets in the one innings of Mozley's.

1877-8.

Captain of the House, R. W. Chetwynd (Upper Divn.).

In the VIII., A. G. Churchill (Captain of the Prince of Wales).

Also in Upper Boats, W. F. Parker (Monarch).

In the XI., R. Durant.

In the Shooting VIII. (winners of the Shield), S. L. Birch-Reynardson.

Football. The House beat Daman's in the first ties for the Football Cup by 4 goals, but in the second would have been as badly beaten by Dalton's, but that the latter could not force against Parker and Churchill any of five rouges obtained. Darbshire (Captain), T. A. Earle, H. J. C. Cust and C. S. Irby are others mentioned for good. Marsh brought down a team of Old Boys, and scored a somewhat fortunate victory. This seems to have been the first of these matches. Another team, mostly of Old Boys, was brought later in the half by L. M. Powell, and this also was victorious.

Fives. T. A. Earle and Durant reached the third ties of the School Fives, but were then beaten by the Keepers; for the House Cup they lost in the first ties to Wolley-Dod's.

Aquatics. A. G. Churchill rowed in the winning Trial Eight and in the Eight, F. E. Churchill (Britannia) in the winning Lower Eight, and Lord Hopetoun (Dreadnought) in the losing Lower Eight. These two and B. F. Hibbert (Dreadnought) rowed in Lower Fours. F. E. Churchill, who, says the cautious record, "promises some day to come near to rivaling his brother's performance," won the Junior Sculling, and with his brother was third in the School Pulling; he was placed 12th in Upper Boat Choices.

Athletics. A. G. Churchill was 3rd in the School Hurdles.

Shooting. Birch-Reynardson was first in Shooting Choices and won the McKerrell Cup; "it was chiefly to his steadiness at a critical moment that Eton owed her victory for the Ashburton Shield."

Cricket. For the Cup the House played Tarver's and won, although "in the first innings of the House 7 wickets fell for 7 consecutive balls." The scores were 51 and 133; Bainbridge made 20 and 5, Durant 8 and 26, Birch-Reynardson 15 and 35, B. T. Hodgson and W. Earle 18 each. But in the second ties the House was badly beaten by Mitchell's, not venturing upon a second innings against a lead of 215 runs with 5 wickets to fall, and with Durant absent. T. A. Earle played for the XXII.

1878-9.

Captain of the House, H. J. C. Cust (Upper Divn.).

In the VIII., F. E. Churchill (Captain of the Hibernia).

Also in Upper Boats, W. F. Parker (Monarch).

In the XI., R. Durant (old Choice), H. W. Bainbridge.

In Oppidan Wall, W. F. Parker.

Football. Although without a representative in the Field, the House Eleven, with W. F. Parker for Captain, and with a strong bully, reached the final. The preliminary victims were Ainger's (after a very close contest), Cornish's, and Mitchell's. In the final C. C. James', with Lehmann playing brilliantly at short, had the best of it and won on a very slippery ground by two rouges. W. F. Parker seems to have walked all the bullies with ease, while "Earle ma. as usual did for us a vast amount of work, well backed up by Irby." Other members of the team honourably mentioned were G. A. St. Quintin, Durant, Cust, Bainbridge, W. Earle, and Churchill. B. T. Hodgson and H. Bury were the other two.

The Lower Boys this year reached the third ties, an unprecedented feat, and very creditable in consideration of their small numbers.

T. A. Earle was 12th in Field Choices.

Two matches were played with the Old Boys, who won the first somewhat luckily, but were beaten in the second by 5 rouges.

Athletics. The House began to come to the front this year in this department, Bainbridge winning the Long Jump, while W. F. Parker was second in that event, and won the Weight with a fine put of 32ft. 3in.

But the Easter Half was brought to a premature and melancholy close "by widespread and severe attacks of illness which gradually dispersed the House," and in the case of one of its most prominent and popular members, Richard Durant, had a fatal result. He died on April 1st, "to the deep sorrow of all who knew him, both in and out of the House alike."

Aquatics. F. E. Churchill rowed in the Eight, and won the Pulling with A. C. Bald.

Cricket. In the first ties for the cup the House beat Durnford's, T. A. Earle scoring 26 and 50, St. Quintin 26. In the second it was beaten by Daman's by 2 wickets, Bainbridge alone distinguishing himself with 46 not out. Parker and Earle bowled well.

1879-80.

Captain of the House, H. J. C. Cust (Sixth Form).

Also in Sixth Form, H. G. Broke.

In the VIII., F. E. Churchill (Captain of Lower Boats).

Also in Upper Boats, Lord H. Grosvenor (Monarch), H. J. C. Cust (Prince of Wales).

In the XI., H. W. Bainbridge.

In Oppidan Wall, F. E. Churchill, H. W. Bainbridge.

In the Shooting VIII. (winners of the Shield), C. Willding-Jones.

Football. This year the House performed the feat of winning the Cup without any member in the Field. The team was fast and heavy, and played well together. All the matches were won with considerable ease, and it is not surprising, on looking at the names, that of 10 rouges obtained in the Cup matches, 9 were turned into goals. "St. Quintin was quite successful as Captain and short behind, and played particularly well in the final match." Bainbridge, W. Earle and Cust are the others then mentioned, and in all the matches. The team was as follows:

G. A. St. Quintin,	B. T. Hodgson,
H. J. C. Cust,	H. Bury,
H. W. Bainbridge,	Lord H. Bentinck,
Hon. C. S. Irby,	C. A. C. Birch,
W. E. Earle,	R. Grenfell.
F. E. Churchill,

No other matches are recorded for this Half.

Bainbridge was 4th in Oppidan Wall, 11th in Mixed Wall, and 15th in Field Choices; Churchill was 7th in the first, and 18th in the second.

Athletics. Bainbridge won the High Jump and Walking Race, Grenfell the Junior Steeplechase.

Aquatics. F. E. Churchill rowed in Trial and Upper Eights and in the Eight, and was second in the Sculling and the Pulling.

Cricket. Bainbridge for the XI. took 24 wickets in School matches.

In the first ties for the Cup the House beat Tarver's in one innings, B. T. Hodgson in the first innings taking 7 wickets for 6 runs. In the second ties Warre's was beaten by 10 wickets, Grenfell scoring 46 and taking 3 wickets, the others falling to Bainbridge and Hodgson. But in the third ties a good match against A. C. James' was lost by 16 runs. Bainbridge and Apsley, with 38 and 27 not out respectively, made a gallant attempt to save the game, but could not do it. Hodgson took 10 wickets, Bainbridge 7, Grenfell 3.

1880-1.

Captain of the House, H. J. C. Cust, his third year in this office.

Also in Sixth Form, Summer Half, H. W. Bainbridge.

Newcastle Select, H. J. C. Cust.

In the VIII., F. E. Churchill (Captain of the Victory).

Also in Upper Boats, H. J. C. Cust and C. M. S. Pilkington (both Monarch).

In the XI., H. W. Bainbridge (2nd Captain).

In Upper Club Choices, B. T. Hodgson (10th).

In the Shooting VIII. (again), C. Willding-Jones.

In Mixed Wall, H. W. Bainbridge and F. E. Churchill.

In the Field, H. W. Bainbridge, H. J. C. Cust 12th man.

Football. The House team had seven old Choices, stronger for a year's growth, and again won the Cup, beating Daman's, Everard's, and Cornish's, the last very easily, and in the final Mitchell's. On this occasion its weight was greatly discounted by "torrents of rain, a bitter wind, and a field inches deep in liquid mud." Several straight shots at goal by Hodgson, Cust and Bainbridge were splendidly saved by Richards, and more than once Mitchell's had the ball on the House line. "Soon after change Hodgson charged well and got a rouge, amidst uproarious cheering," but it was not forced, and no further score was obtained. "Hodgson and Cust played particularly well in the bully, and Churchill behind was invaluable; the rest of the eleven worked well enough, but could not keep together like Mr. Mitchell's side; Paravicini played magnificently . . . Richards saved his side over and over again. Many of the heavy members of the House stay for next year. May their shadows never grow less!"

Names of the eleven :

H. J. C. Cust,	R. Grenfell,
H. W. Bainbridge,	L. E. Barry,
F. E. Churchill,	S. W. S. Dickins,
B. T. Hodgson,	Lord Apsley,
H. Bury,	Hon. E. S. Douglas-Pennant.
Lord H. Bentinck,

Athletics. Churchill won the Weight with a "mammoth heave" of 36ft. 4in., Bainbridge was second with 31ft. 5in. With the Hammer the two reversed their positions, and Bainbridge won the Cricket Ball. E. S. Douglas-Pennant won the High Jump, and Cust would probably have won the Long Jump, but that he injured himself at the first attempt. But for this the House would have swept all the events, and had two seconds besides. In the School Races Bainbridge was barely beaten in the Hurdles and Quarter, Cust and he were second and third in the Hundred Yards.

Aquatics. Churchill won the Sculling easily, and the Pulling (with D. H. McLean).

Cricket. Bainbridge, with 22 and 23, did best of the XI. against Harrow. Hodgson played in two School matches. For the Cup, the House beat Marindin's easily, but succumbed in the second ties to Daman's, the only prominent performers with the bat being Lord Apsley 20, and Hodgson 38. Bainbridge and Hodgson dismissed Daman's in the first innings for 46, but in the second two members of that team scored 39 apiece, and it won by five wickets.

1881-2.

ANNUS MIRABILIS.

The House included the Captain of the Boats and the Captain of the XI., each of them in his fourth year in the VIII. and XI. respectively, a Keeper of the Field and Mixed Wall, and the President of Pop. It won the House Football Cup for the third year in succession, and kept it. It was very prominent in athletics, and had a good, though unsuccessful, cricket eleven. It had four members in Sixth Form, and a fifth in the Head's Division.

Captain of the House, H. W. Bainbridge.

Also in Sixth Form, H. Bury, C. Egerton-Green, and in the Summer Half F. E. Churchill.

Captain of the Boats, F. E. Churchill.

Also in Upper Boats, C. M. S. Pilkington and C. Egerton-Green (Monarch), Count de Salis (Victory), Hon. E. S. Douglas-Pennant (Prince of Wales).

Captain of the XI. and President of the Eton Society, H. W. Bainbridge.

In Upper Club Choices, B. T. Hodgson (8th).

In Mixed Wall, H. W. Bainbridge (Senior Keeper), F. E. Churchill, H. Bury ; in Oppidan Wall, B. T. Hodgson.

In the Field, H. W. Bainbridge (Junior Keeper), H. Bury and B. T. Hodgson.

In the Shooting VIII., H. R. De Salis, Count De Salis 9th man.

Football. The House team this year was probably the finest ever seen at Eton, and the heaviest, the run-in for the rouge being estimated at a quarter of a ton. Luxmoore's succumbed to it by 7 goals and a rouge, Everard's by 6 goals and a rouge, Cornish's by 6 goals and 3 rouges, Dalton's in the final by 5 goals and a rouge against a rouge; total 24 goals 6 rouges against one rouge. In the first match, we read, "the weight of the House eleven was quite irresistible"; in the second, "the other side were quite overmatched at all points"; in the third Bury "fairly out—Buried himself"; in the final, "goal succeeded goal with regularity more than painful to the losing side, . . . after forcing the third rouge the eleven headed by Apsley ran the ball from the kick off straight to the goal, and almost immediately scored a fifth goal, this succession of goals coming within six or seven minutes time: the first was particularly the result of fine play, a sheet would have covered the whole bully, nothing could resist such a rush."

"This was for us the end of a very remarkable season and succession of victories in the House Cup: the eleven had steadily improved since being beaten in the final of 1878, and this year reached a degree of pace, finesse, endurance, and combination that has almost certainly never been equalled at Eton by any House team The Cup remains in the House a κρίμα εις δει."

The members of this remarkable team were:

H. W. Bainbridge,	Lord Apsley,
F. E. Churchill,	Hon. E. S. Douglas-Pennant,
B. T. Hodgson,	F. Douglas-Pennant,
H. Bury,	Lord W. Bentinck,
Lord H. Bentinck,	C. M. S. Pilkington.
R. Grenfell,

Athletics. In the School Races Bainbridge was second in the Hundred Yards and Quarter and won the Hurdles, Hodgson being in the final for the first and third of these events. Roper-Curzon won the Junior Hundred Yards, and would have won the Junior Quarter with equal ease, but that he fell in the last few yards.

In the Sports Bainbridge won the Weight with 34 ft. 9 in., Hodgson being second, while Churchill made an exhibition put of 36 ft. 8 in. He won the Hammer with a record throw of 95 ft. 10 in., and Bury was second with 82 ft. Bainbridge made an exhibition Long Jump of 19 ft. 10 in.

Fives. Bainbridge was 7th, Churchill 9th, Lord H. Bentinck 12th in Choices. Two pairs entered for the House Fives, the three mentioned and J. N. Heathcote.

Aquatics. The VIII. under Churchill brought back the Ladies' Plate to Eton after 12 years' interval. A House Four manned by Churchill, Count de Salis, Hon. E. S. Douglas-Pennant, and Lord Douglas Compton (Britannia), Slade cox., was last in the final.

Cricket. Bainbridge made 32 in the first innings at Lord's. Hodgson played in three School matches, making 24 not out, 19 not out, and 7, and was 12th man for the Winchester match. For the Cup the House beat Everard's and Marindin's, but lost "unexpectedly" to Evans', for whom scores of 149, 70, and 43 were made, with a total of 341. Bainbridge and Hodgson each took 4 wickets.

Shooting. The brothers De Salis came out third for the House Shooting Cup with a score of 122, Evans' winning with 138. In the E.C.R.V. the House had a Lieutenant, Churchill, a Colour-Sergeant, Hodgson, and 4 Sergeants, Egerton-Green, Pilkington, Bury, and Count de Salis.

1882-3.

The brilliance of the preceding years was necessarily followed by some reaction, seeing that no fewer than 18 members of the House had left at Christmas or Election; nevertheless much distinction was gained.

Captain of the House, Lord William Bentinck (Upper Divn.).

In the VIII., Hon. E. S. Douglas-Pennant (Captain of the Prince of Wales).

In the Field, Lord Apsley.

In Oppidan Wall, Hon. E. S. Douglas-Pennant; Lord Apsley 12th man.

In the Shooting VIII. (again), H. R. De Salis.

Football. The House beat Everard's in the first ties for the Cup, and Luxmoore's very easily in the second, but in the third had only a moral victory. Its opponents, Warre's, obtained a rouge in the first half, "after which the House played up very well and quite pinned Mr. Warre's till the end of the match, but they were unable to score anything, several times they claimed a rouge, but the umpire would not allow any; two of these were very like rouges indeed."

A match with Durnford's resulted in a draw; in the Old Boys' match a very strong team quite outpaced and outweighed the House. The Captain, Lord Apsley, received most support from E. S. Douglas-Pennant.

Athletics. Apsley was third in the School Mile, E. S. Douglas-Pennant third in the Long Jump.

Aquatics. The last-named stroked the winning Upper Eight, and rowed No. 2 in the Eight.

Cricket. For the Cup the House beat C. C. James', scoring 219 against 123 and 27, but lost to Cockshott's in the second ties by 4 runs only. The highest scorers for the House were Apsley, C. F. Earle, C. G. Bainbridge, and T. W. Brand. The last was very efficient as a bowler, taking 21 wickets in the four innings, while E. S. Douglas-Pennant had 13.

1883-4.

Captain of the House, M. P. Parker (Upper Divn.).

In the XI. against Winchester, T. W. Brand.

Football. The House was beaten in the first ties for the Cup by Shuckburgh's by one goal. It won a match against Everard's by a rouge, but was easily beaten by the Old Boys. F. Douglas-Pennant was Captain, M. P. Parker, H. W. Hodgson, and J. E. Pine-Coffin receive favourable mention.

Athletics. Parker tied for second place in Putting the Weight.

Cricket. For the Cup the House beat Rawlins', Lord Charles Bentinck scoring 49, Slade 47, in the 2nd innings; but in the second ties Durnford's won with an innings to spare, in spite of 16 and 53 by Brand. He took 16 wickets, Douglas-Pennant and Bentinck 5 each.

1884-5.

Captain of the House, M. P. Parker (Sixth Form).

In the XI., T. W. Brand.

In the Field and Oppidan Wall, M. P. Parker.

Football. The House beat Radcliffe's easily in the first ties for the Cup, and drew with Cockshott's in the second, being beaten at the second attempt when deprived of the services of C. J. Hawker, who had been badly injured. M. P. Parker, Captain, and Pine-Coffin were most conspicuous. The Old Boys' match was again won by the visitors.

Athletics. Roper-Curzon won the School Quarter, and was third in the Hundred Yards, Parker was second in that event and in Putting the Weight, Pine-Coffin was second in the Long Jump.

Cricket. For the Cup the House beat Merriott's, but lost to Durnford's. It won a match against Daman's, playing without Brand. A. E. Bright took 26 wickets in the three matches, Hon. John Ward 8 in two matches, Brand 12 in the two Cup matches, Lord Charles Bentinck 4 in that against Daman's. Brand was the most successful scorer, the two Hodgsons, Hawkins, Slade and Ward-Fox also distinguishing themselves in this respect.

1885-6.

Captain of the House, W. N. Slade (Sixth Form).

In the XI., T. W. Brand.

In the Shooting Eight, F. R. Markham, A. F. Warre 9th man.

In Oppidan Wall (14th in Mixed Wall Choices), H. J. P. S. Roper-Curzon.

Football. The House beat Cole's in the first ties for the Cup, but lost to Mitchell's in the second. A match with A. C. James' was won. T. C. E. Goff was Captain, and H. W. Hodgson, Foxcroft, and Ward-Fox receive mention.

Athletics. Roper-Curzon was again third in the Hundred Yards.

Shooting. The House won the Cup this year, the team being composed of Markham, A. F. Warre, and W. G. A. Orde-Powlett.

Aquatics. E. L. Churchill rowed in the losing Lower Eight.

Cricket. In the first ties for the Cup, against Dalton's, H. W. Hodgson scored 77 not out, Brand 44 not out, E. T. Hodgson 20. The match in the second ties is not recorded. In the third Evans' scored 214 and 94 against 158 and 120, and so won. Lord C. Bentinck made 81, Brand 52, E. T. Hodgson 21, W. T. Hodgson 17, Ward-Fox 15 and 20. The bowlers' names are not given.

1886-7.

Captain of the House, H. W. Hodgson (Army Class I.).

Stroke of the VIII., E. L. Churchill (Prince of Wales).

Captain of the XI., T. W. Brand.

In Upper Club Choices, A. E. Bright 15th, H. W. Hodgson 17th.

In Mixed Wall, T. W. Brand; in Oppidan Wall, Lord C. Bentinck.

In the Shooting VIII. (winners of the Spencer Cup, 2nd for the Shield), F. B. Markham.

Master of the Beagles, T. W. Brand, Lord C. Bentinck, 1st whip.

Football. The House started for the Cup with a win from Carter's by 8 goals to nothing, besides many chances lost by bad shooting and touching down. It next beat Everard's by 3 goals and a rouge. But in the third ties its representatives "were completely outpaced" by Marindin's (who tied with Luxmoore's for the Cup), and suffered their first defeat of the year by 2 goals and 2 rouges. Foxcroft, second in the team, was unable to play after October. Lord C. Bentinck and the two behinds, A. F. Warre and Ward-Fox, best backed up the Captain, H. W. Hodgson; Orde-Powlett and Churchill are also mentioned.

Bentinck was 9th in Mixed Wall Choices, and Hodgson 11th in Field Choices.

Athletics. Bentinck was second in Putting the Weight.

Racquets. Ward-Fox was in Choices, and entered for the House Cup with Hon. R. A. Ward.

Fives. H. W. Hodgson was 7th in Choices, and survived three ties of the School Fives.

Shooting. The Cup should have been won by the House, but for three successive misses by one of the team at 500 yards. Its representatives were Markham, E. B. N. Gunter (the unfortunate one), and A. F. Warre. They tied with Evans' at 131, Mitchell's winning with 134.

Markham was first for the Scott Cup in the autumn and again in the summer. He scored 54 at Wimbledon. A. F. Warre won the Recruit Cup.

Aquatics. On the River there was a marked revival. Churchill, rowing at barely 10 st., was in the losing Trial Eight, and stroked the winning Lower Four, the winning Upper Eight, and the VIII. C. H. M. S. Bright (Britannia) and Markham (Dreadnought) also rowed in Lower Fours, and also, with E. P. Serocold (Dreadnought) and A. F. Warre (St. George), in Lower Eights. A House Four started, manned by Churchill, Bright, W. H. Askew (Britannia), and A. F. Warre, with Hobart cox., but it was crippled by Churchill's indisposition before the race and Markham's inability to row, and so did not do much.

Cricket. Brand bowled with much success against both Winchester and Harrow, and had a bowling average of 12·7 for School matches. In the Cup ties the House beat Daman's and Luxmoore's, Ward-Fox making 90 not out in the latter match, but had to succumb to Mitchell's, who won the Cup for the 8th successive time. Scores are not given.

1887-8.

Captain of the House, E. L. Churchill (Sixth Form in Summer Half).
In the VIII., E. L. Churchill (2nd Captain of the Boats) stroke, A. F. Warre (Prince of Wales).

Also in Upper Boats, F. R. Markham (Prince of Wales).

In the XI., Hon. R. A. Ward and E. T. Hodgson.

In Upper Club Choices, Hon J. H. Ward 10th, R. B. N. Gunter 15th.

In Oppidan Wall and 12th man in the Field, E. W. B. Ward-Fox.

In the Shooting VIII., F. R. Markham (Captain), A. F. Warre; E. R. Warre 9th man.

Football. Foxcroft unfortunately having been obliged to leave through illness, Orde-Powlett was Captain of the House team, a fast and heavy one. In the first ties for the Cup it only just managed to beat Rawlins', who had much the best of the opening play. In the second it beat A. C. James', and in the third Dalton's, both easily. In the ante-final a very strong team from Marindin's, including four in the Field, and some who played regularly in the Field game, and which subsequently won the Cup, had to be met. Two severe contests were fought without result, but on the third day Marindin's succeeded in obtaining a rouge, which was turned into a goal, and proved to be the only point scored. Ward-Fox and R. B. N. Gunter were very efficient behind; Churchill is favourably mentioned in all the matches, after him J. H. Ward, Bright, Warre, Hodgson, and Markham; the Captain was unfortunately incapacitated from doing his usual share in the work by illness.

The members of this fine team were:

W. G. A. Orde-Powlett,	R. B. N. Gunter,
E. W. B. Ward-Fox,	F. R. Markham,
E. L. Churchill,	Hon. J. H. Ward,
A. E. Bright,	Hon. R. A. Ward,
A. F. Warre,	A. R. De C.-Brooke.
E. T. Hodgson,

The House won the Old Boys' Match by a goal and 3 rouges to a goal. Orde-Powlett was 14th in Field Choices.

Racquets. Ward-Fox and R. A. Ward reached the ante-final in the House Racquets, but then had to scratch on account of the football ties with Marindin's.

Athletics. Orde-Powlett ran third in the School Quarter, and fourth in the Hurdles and Hundred Yards, Gunter was fifth in the Quarter, and second in the Long Jump.

Shooting. E. R. Warre won the Peek Cup, Markham was second, Gunter third, A. F. Warre sixth. Markham, A. F. Warre, and E. R. Warre competed for the House Cup, and naturally won it; their score was the highest recorded for this competition.

Aquatics. A. F. Warre rowed in the winning Trial Eights, Markham in the losing one. These two stroked Lower Fours, the former winning, E. S. Parker (Britannia) rowed bow in his boat. The last-named stroked a Lower Eight which did not disgrace itself in losing, E. R. Warre (Hibernia) rowed bow. Parker was in the final for the Junior Sculling. Churchill (with Francklyn) was second in the Pulling after a race spoilt by fouls. For the House Fours he was backed by A. F. Warre, Markham, and E. S. Parker, E. H. Parker cox., but they were beaten by Wintle's.

Cricket. For the Cup the House beat Tarver's, scoring 161 against 62 and 19, but lost to Mitchell's. The two Wards shared Tarver's wickets, Gunter was chief scorer with 72. The match with Mitchell's is not recorded.

1888-9.

Captain of the House, E. L. Churchill, Sixth Form and Newcastle Select.

Also in Sixth Form, C. V. C. Hobart (Michaelmas Half).

Captain of the Boats, E. L. Churchill.

Also in the VIII., A. F. Warre (Captain of the Prince of Wales) stroke.

In the XI., Hon. R. A. Ward, Hon. J. H. Ward.

In Upper Club Choices, R. B. N. Gunter 10th.

In the Field, R. B. N. Gunter.

In the Shooting VIII., A. F. Warre (Captain).

Master of the Beagles, Hon. J. H. Ward.

Football. E. L. Churchill was Captain of the team, which beat Everard's easily in the first ties, but lost to Hale's in the second. The ground was "absolutely impossible to stand on." Hale's obtained a rouge in a lucky manner just before time, and turned it into a goal. "There can be no doubt that the result would have been very different had the ground been firmer." Gunter was a tower of strength behind, forward J. H. Ward and the Captain distinguished themselves most, F. A. Bainbridge, A. B. Bathurst, R. A. Ward, R. E. Lambton, and E. G. Campbell are also mentioned.

Athletics. Gunter won the Hurdles, R. A. Ward was third in the Quarter and second in the Steeplechase. Gunter was second for the Weight (31ft. 6in.) and High Jump, and with the Cricket Ball was only 6in. behind the winner. In points scored the House was well in front of any other.

Fives. Two pairs entered for the House Cup; the first was beaten in the second round, after a close fight, by Mitchell's, who reached the final.

Shooting. A. F. Warre won the Peek Cup. For the House Cup E. R. Warre (who, but for illness, would have shot for the School) and Gunter were unable to shoot, but A. F. Warre, C. E. Corkran, and A. H. Oppenheim were only two points behind the winners.

Aquatics. A. F. Warre stroked the winning Trial Eight and the VIII., which all but won the Ladies' Plate. Corkran (Britannia) rowed in Lower Eights, E. R. Warre (Britannia) in Lower Fours. Churchill started for the Pulling with Francklyn, but the race was again spoilt by fouls. A House Four could not be started, as the two Warres were unable to row.

Cricket. In the Cup matches the House was badly crippled by the loss of J. H. Ward, and of Gunter in the last match. Nevertheless it beat Cornish's and Durnford's easily, losing in the third ties to Carpenter's. Details are wanting.

Against Winchester, J. H. Ward took 8 wickets for 92, and 3 against Harrow.

1889-90.

Captain of the House, R. E. Lambton (Div. I.) until Easter, then E. G. Campbell (Army Class I.).

In Upper Boats, Sir S. Scott (Monarch), E. R. Warre and C. E. Corkran (Victory). M. Barne steered the VIII.

In the XI. (old choice), Hon. R. A. Ward.

In the Shooting VIII., Sir C. Miles and E. R. Warre.

Master of the Beagles and President of the Eton Society in the Easter Half, Hon. R. A. Ward.

Football. The House beat Tarver's and Carter's easily for the Cup, but was beaten in the third ties by Durnford's by a goal and 2 rouges. It beat the Old Boys by 2 goals. The most prominent in the matches were R. A. Ward (Captain), E. G. Campbell, R. E. Lambton, A. H. Oppenheim, A. B. Bathurst and Lord Crichton.

Athletics. R. A. Ward won both Mile and Steeplechase, six members of the House starting for the latter. E. B. Van De Weyer won the Junior Mile, R. Ward the Junior Steeplechase.

Fives. Lambton and Campbell entered for the House Cup, but were beaten in the second ties. R. Ward was one of the winners of Junior Fives, Lambton survived to the ante-final of the School Fives, and was third in Choices.

Shooting. No record.

Aquatics. Corkran rowed in the winning and E. R. Warre in the losing Trial Eight.

Cricket. The eleven was weak, and was beaten in the first ties for the Cup by Carter's. It had no member in the XI. or near it, R. A. Ward having left at Easter.

1890-91.

Captain of the House, E. G. Campbell (Army Class I.) till Easter, then C. S. P. Serocold (Sixth Form).

In the VIII., E. R. Warre (Captain of the Prince of Wales), C. E. Corkran (Captain of Lower Boats), M. Barne cox.

Also in Upper Boats, C. S. P. Serocold (No. 9 in the Monarch), Lord Crichton (Prince of Wales).

The House had besides four members of Lower Boats and two steerers.

Twelfth man in Mixed Wall, 13th in Field Choices, and Master of the Beagles, E. G. Campbell.

E. R. Warre shot in some matches for the School, but not against Wellington, Winchester, or at Bisley.

Football. The House drew a blank in the first ties for the Cup, and was then beaten by Carpenter's after a good match. Hon. R. Ward, a new choice, distinguished himself most in this match, in the others most members of the team are mentioned as doing well. The 'Colours' were E. G. Campbell, Hon. A. B. Bathurst, G. C. H. Wheler, E. R. Warre, Lord Crichton, Sir S. Scott, and C. E. Corkran. The old Boys won their match by two rouges to one, but "ought to have scored many goals." Throughout the half the team was hampered by the illness of one or other of its members. Carpenter's, who beat it, only lost by a rouge to the winners of the Cup.

Athletics. Campbell was fourth in the Steeplechase and Mile.

Aquatics. In Trial Eights the House had No. 7 in each boat, Corkran and Warre, and both steerers, M. Barne and Claud Serocold. Corkran did great work as No. 7 of the VIII. Donaldson-Hudson (Britannia) rowed in Lower Eights and Lower Fours, and was third in Junior Sculling, Barne also rowed in Lower Eights. A House Four, comprised of E. R. Warre (stroke), Corkran, Hudson, and Barne, Serocold cox., was beaten in the 2nd heat by Hale's by two lengths, Hale's winning the final easily.

Cricket. The House did well considering its want of Upper Club players. It beat Dalton's and Durnford's, the latter by 8 wickets, in the Cup ties, but was then beaten by Evans'. Against Durnford's, C. G. B. Marsham made 56, Arkwright took 8 wickets, Ward 7, and Cunliffe 3. The other scores are not preserved. R. Ward and Arkwright (Middle Club) and F. H. E. Cunliffe (Lower Club) headed the team.

Shooting. The House won the Cup by one point; E. R. Warre, Corkran, and Donaldson-Hudson shot.

1891-2.

Captain of the House, and President of the Eton Society, E. R. Warre (Sixth Form).

In the VIII., E. R. Warre, 2nd Captain, C. P. Serocold cox.

In the Victory, Donaldson-Hudson, G. O. C. Edwards cox.

In Upper Club Choices, Hon. R. Ward 11th.

Football. For the Cup the House beat Mozley's easily, after drawing blank in the first ties, but lost to Hale's in the third ties by a goal after a close match. Its best forward, Hon. G. A. C. Crichton, was unable to play. The old Boys' match was distinguished by "a most extraordinary bully in front of goals, which lasted for about ten minutes, the ground being so slippery that no one on either side could stand." The House won by 2 goals and 2 rouges. Most of the team stand commended. The 'colours' were E. R. Warre, Lord Crichton, Corkran, G. A. C. Crichton, R. Ward, Barne and Hudson. The first named was 16th in Field Choices.

Athletics. M. A. R. Cholmeley and H. B. Cresswell distinguished themselves in the Junior Events. The former won the Hurdles and Long Jump, and was second in the Hundred Yards and third for the High Jump, the latter won the Quarter, and was second in the Mile and Steeplechase.

Fives. R. Ward and R. A. B. Marsham entered for the House Cup, but were beaten by Dalton's in the second ties.

Aquatics. Donaldson-Hudson rowed in, and Serocold steered the winning Trial Eight.

Cricket. R. Ward played in two School matches. To help him in the House team he had Cunliffe (Middle Club), E. B. Van De Weyer (Lower Club), and Hon. G. E. F. Ward (Sixpenny). The House beat Everard's by 2 wickets, but were defeated in the 2nd ties by Radcliffe's, only compiling 11 runs in the 2nd innings; Cholmeley took 4 wickets in this match, R. Ward 3, Van De Weyer 2. Cunliffe made 32 and 15 against Everard's, R. Ward 19 and 35, G. A. C. Crichton 29 not out.

Shooting. The House was second for the Cup, E. R. Warre, Reeves and G. A. C. Crichton representing it. Warre again this year did not shoot for the School.

1892-3.

Captains of the House, Hon. G. A. C. Crichton till Christmas, then R. A. B. Marsham, both in First Hundred.

Steerer of the VIII. (winners of the Ladies' Plate), C. P. Serocold.

Also in Upper Boats, W. V. Reeves (Monarch).

In the XI., F. H. E. Cunliffe.

Football. The House, after drawing blank in the first ties for the Cup, beat Carter's by a goal, but were then beaten by a strong team from Hale's by a goal and two rouges. R. Ward and G. A. C. Crichton were 20th and 27th in Field Choices; most of the other work was done by H. F. Crichton and H. B. Cresswell, and by E. B. Van De Weyer behind. The Old Boys were beaten by two goals and two rouges.

Athletics. Cresswell was second in the Mile and the Quarter, Marsham second in Putting the Weight, G. E. F. Ward second in the Junior High Jump. The House tied with Durnford's for 3rd place for the Athletic Cup instituted this year.

Cricket. The House was beaten in the first ties for the Cup by Tarver's, but for the Junior Cup it was only beaten in the final by Luxmoore's at the second attempt, the first match being declared a tie after a disagreement about the scores. The second was lost by 7 wickets. G. Ward distinguished himself with the ball, taking 20 wickets out of 33.

1893-4.

Captain of the House, G. O. C. Edwards (Div. I.).

Steerer of the VIII. (again winners of the Ladies' Plate), C. P. Serocold (his third year).

In the Monarch, Hon. A. O. Crichton.

In the XI., F. H. E. Cunliffe.

In the Field and Master of the Beagles, H. B. Cresswell.

Football. In the Football Half unfortunately an outbreak of diphtheria dispersed the House, and obliged it to scratch for the Cup, after drawing blank in the first ties. The Old Boys won their match by a goal and two rouges to a rouge. H. B. Cresswell (Captain), Cholmeley, A. O. and J. A. Crichton, and B. G. Van De Weyer were most conspicuous in the matches played.

Athletics. Cresswell won the Walking Race, and was second in the Steeplechase, G. E. F. Ward was second in the High Jump, R. A. Morritt second in the Junior Hurdles, Paget third in the Junior Long Jump. The House was second for the Athletic Cup.

Fives. Cunliffe and Edwards were beaten in the second ties for the House Cup by Impey's. In the School Fives the former reached the fifth and the latter the fourth ties, Cunliffe and his partner only being beaten by the winners after a great game.

Aquatics. In Lower Eights Edwards stroked one of the losing crews, H. St. L. Stucley rowed behind him, and E. L. Warre for the winners. Edwards was second both in Junior Sculling and Junior Pulling. Serocold as coxswain of the VIII. is described in the Chronicle as "absolutely unrivalled as a steersman, never making a mistake of any kind: his coolness, knowledge, and decision made him one of the most valuable members of the crew."

Cricket. In the first ties for the Cup the House beat Mozley's with great ease, two of the tail, Tryon and A. B. E. Cator (last man), making 52 and 48 respectively, and Cunliffe taking 17 wickets for 37 runs. In the second ties Legard for Donaldson's made 63 and took 14 wickets, the House only compiling 81 and 89 and losing by 9 wickets.

Cunliffe did extremely well against Harrow, scoring 32 and taking 13 wickets for 94, bowling unchanged throughout.

1894-5.

Captains of the House, G. O. C. Edwards (Captain of the Oppidans) till Christmas, then Hon. C. Douglas-Pennant (First Hundred).

In Upper Boats, R. C. Scott (Captain of the Thetis), 11th in Upper Boat Choices.

In second Upper Club, Hon. G. E. F. Ward.

Football. This was the year of the great flood, which broke up the School from Nov. 17th to Dec. 1st. For the Cup the House beat Radcliffe's at the second attempt by a goal, but was beaten in the next ties by Mitchell's, though having the best of the match on the whole. Two rouges were obtained on each side, but Mitchell's were able to turn them into goals, and the House not. The Captain's accounts of these and the other matches are voluminous, and nearly all the members of the team come in for commendation at different times. Stucley seems to have played brilliantly, and received his colours first, the others so honoured being A. O. and J. A. Crichton, G. E. F. Ward, and J. P. Burrell. J. W. Earle was next. The old colours were Edwards (Captain) and B. G. Van De Weyer.

Easter Half. In consequence of the death of the Rev. T. Dalton, two valuable recruits came from his house, J. H. S. Warre and R. C. Scott.

Aquatics. E. L. Warre stroked the winning Lower Eight, J. H. S. Warre rowed in his boat, and F. W. Warre in another. E. L. Warre also rowed in Lower Fours. J. Warre won the Junior Sculling, and was third in the Junior Pulling.

Cricket. In the first ties for the Cup the House defeated Rawlins' by 10 wickets, Anstruther making 58 not out, and Ward and Tryon each taking 8 wickets. In the second ties Donaldson's were beaten by 38 runs, the chief scorers on this occasion being Ward 25 and 24, Anstruther 15 and 18, Gurdon 8 and 23. Tryon took 10 wickets, Ward 7, Earle 2. In the third ties Porter's could only score 27 and 47 against 148, of which Ward made 68, Tryon 31, taking 12 and 7 wickets respectively. This brought the House into the ante-final, and to another victory by 4 wickets. On this occasion Ward made 26 and 33, Anstruther 44 and 6, F. G. Willan 27 and 9, while Tryon took 9 wickets, Ward 8, and Earle 2. The final was played against Mitchell's, who opened with 130, to which the House replied with 107, Tryon chief scorer with 37. Then Mitchell's compiled 109, leaving the House 133 to get to win, which it failed to do, all being out for 88. Morritt made 21, Jardine 14, Tryon 12, Ward took 10 wickets, Tryon 6, Earle and Morritt each one. Undoubtedly, says the Chronicle, the best team won, but it is very creditable to the House to have made so good a fight with no representatives in Upper Club, Ward playing in 2nd Upper Club, Tryon in Lower Club, and C. A. M. Cator being a Keeper of Sixpenny.

1895-6.

Captain of the House, B. F. Gurdon (Div. I.).

In the VIII. (winners of the Ladies' Plate), F. W. Warre and E. L. Warre; J. H. S. Warre (Captain of the Defiance), 9th man.

In the XI., G. T. L. Tryon, Hon. G. E. F. Ward.

In 2nd Upper Club, R. A. Morritt.

Master of the Beagles, Hon. G. E. F. Ward.

Football. The team was captained by Ward, 25th in Field Choices. Vaughan's were beaten in the first ties for the Cup by 3 goals, but the House seems to have been then vanquished; there is however no record.

The Old Boys' Match was won by the House by a rouge. The most useful members of the team were Ward, J. Warre, Willan, and Gurdon forward, Burrell and E. L. Warre behind.

Athletics. Ward won the High Jump and was third in the Steeplechase. R. A. Morritt was second for the High Jump, and bracketed second for the Hurdles. Hon. T. Ellis was second in the Junior Hurdles. For the Athletic Cup the House came out fourth.

Fives. Gurdon and J. W. Earle were beaten in the second ties for the House Cup by Vaughan's. They reached the fifth round of the School Competition, for which nine entered from the House.

Aquatics. The three Warres rowed in the winning Trial Eights, E. L. and F. W. were third in the School Pulling. W. E. Guinness (Britannia) had little difficulty in winning the Junior Sculling. These oarsmen manned what the Chronicle calls "a really formidable" House Four and won the Cup.

Cricket. Besides the three cricketers above-mentioned, the House had in Lower Club F. G. Willan (Keeper), A. E. Paget, W. T. Hodgson, Hon. T. Ellis, and R. W. Oppenheim, and in Upper Sixpenny C. A. M. Cator, H. E. Hardy, and A. A. Tod. The first match for the Cup was played against S. B. James', with a crushing result. Records of succeeding matches are not preserved, but the House again reached the final, after a "sensational and unexpected victory" over Mitchell's. The final also was sensational, the House scoring only 59, and Donaldson's only 44, in the first innings. At the next attempt the House made 70, and Donaldson's obtained the 86 runs required for the loss of 8 wickets. The result was disappointing, as the House ought to have won. Ward took 10 wickets, Tryon 6, Ellis made 18 not out in the second innings, Tryon 13 and 24, Morritt 12 and 3 (run out); Cator was badly run out after making 13 in the first innings, and kept up his wicket well in the second for 9, while Tryon hit.

A sad event marred the happiness of the Summer Half, the death of H. E. Hardy, one of the most popular and promising members of the House, a boy who, the Captain writes, "had made himself very dear to every member of the House by his bright happy nature, and by his uprightness and manliness in everything he undertook."

1896-7.

Captain of the House, F. W. Warre (First Hundred).

In the VIII., F. W. Warre (2nd Captain of the Boats) Hon. W. E. Guinness (Captain of the St. George).

In the XI., G. T. L. Tryon.

In 2nd Upper Club, F. G. Willan, W. T. Hodgson.

Football. For the Cup the House beat Carter's and Radcliffe's, but lost in the third ties to Impey's by 2 goals and a rouge. Willan was Captain, the only match recorded is the last, when Warre is favourably mentioned.

Athletics. Hon. T. Ellis was second in the Hurdles, F. W. Warre in the Long Jump and Weight, H. E. Morritt third in the High Jump. For the Athletic Cup the House stood fifth.

Aquatics. The House Four, manned by F. W. Warre, Hon. W. E. Guinness, R. A. Cross, and Hon. L. P. Cary, Mostyn-Pryce, coxswain of the Thetis, steering, was beaten by Mozley's in the second ties. Warre and Guinness were second in the School Pulling, the latter won the School Sculling.

Cricket. The three above mentioned were supported by C. A. M. Cator and A. A. Tod in Lower Club. The House drew blank in the first ties for the Cup, beat A. C. James' in the second, and was then beaten by Donaldson's. There is no record of the matches.

1897-8.

Captain of the House, J. W. Jardine (Div. I.).

In the VIII., Hon. W. E. Guinness (Captain of the Britannia).

Also in Upper Boats, Mostyn-Pryce (Coxswain of the Prince of Wales).

In the XXII., C. A. M. Cator.

In 2nd Upper Club, W. T. Hodgson (Keeper) and A. A. Tod.

Football. In the first ties for the Cup the House beat P. Williams', but in the second, after a good match, lost to Broadbent's by a goal to a rouge. W. T. Hodgson, Captain, stands commended for his fine kicking, after him, Ellis and Tod.

Athletics. H. E. Morritt was second in the Hurdles, and third in the High Jump and Long Jump.

Cricket. Though weak on paper the House Eleven did very well, beating Daman's, Donaldson's, and Rawlins', and reaching the ante-final. Against Rawlins', Hodgson made 21 and 20, Tod 6 and 38, Cator 16 and 1, Jardine 14 and 13, Cator took 11 wickets and Jardine 8, the House winning by 44 runs. The score of the match against Radcliffe's, who lost in the final to Mitchell's, is not recorded.

1898-9.

Captain of the House, J. W. Jardine till Christmas, then Hon. W. E. Guinness, both in Sixth Form.

Captain of the Boats and President of the Eton Society, Hon. W. E. Guinness.

In the second VIII., R. A. Cross (Prince of Wales).

Coxswain of the Victory (March), Mostyn-Pryce.

In the XI., A. A. Tod.

In Oppidan Wall and 11th in Mixed Wall Choices, Hon. W. E. Guinness.

Football. Considering that the House had no one in the Field or in Field Choices, the football team performed creditably. It beat Daman's in the first ties for the Cup, but then lost to Durnford's, winners of the Cup, by two goals and a rouge. It defeated the old Boys, and played a tie with Tatham's. Jardine, the Captain, was best backed by Guinness, C. M. Davies, and L. E. Bury, forward, and by Tod and J. B. Van De Weyer, behind.

Fives. Tod was in Choices. For the House Cup, the House beat Tatham's and Evans', but lost to Radcliffe's.

Aquatics. J. B. Van De Weyer (Hibernia) rowed in Lower Fours.

Cricket. The House beat Porter's in the Cup ties, but lost to Donaldson's after a very close match. Records are wanting.

1899-1900.

Captain of the House, C. M. Davies (Sixth Form).

Also in Sixth Form, R. A. Cross.

In Upper Boats, R. A. Cross (Captain of the Thetis).

In the XI., A. A. Tod.

In 2nd Upper Club, L. E. Bury, 1st Choice.

In Oppidan Wall, A. A. Tod, 11th in Mixed Wall Choices.

Racquets. A. A. Tod and E. W. Bury beat Brinton's for the House Cup, but were beaten in the second ties by Donaldson's. The former was 5th in Racquet Choices, the latter 4th, and L. E. Parr 6th.

Football. The House once more performed the feat of winning the House Cup with no representative in the Field. The result was mainly due to the brilliant ubiquity of Tod, the Captain, to whom L. E. Bury was a splendid second forward. A valuable recruit was J. H. A. Hope, 16th in Field Choices, who came into the House when W. Durnford's broke up. After a bye in the first ties, Tatham's was beaten in the second by a goal and a rouge. "The whole bully played well, Hope and L. E. Bury being conspicuous, while Tod and Van De Weyer were excellent behind." Donaldson's was next defeated by 4 rouges, all gained in the first quarter of an hour. The above four ("Tod was invaluable behind") and Davies are mentioned. The ante-final produced two desperately-contested matches with Evans', the second of which was won by one rouge, converted into a goal. Says the Chronicle, "of the behinds, Tod, at short, was far and away the best, and it was to his kicking and his judgment that Mr. Leigh's victory was chiefly due." And again, "For Mr. Leigh's, Tod was excellent, he stopped the rushes, kicked with great judgment, and was invaluable at the critical moments; of the outsides Davies and L. Bury were both conspicuous." The final also against P. Williams' was closely contested, the House however pressing their opponents in the second half. It was won by a goal and a rouge. "Bury was invaluable, and Hope and Davies worked hard, the bully played very well together, Tod was excellent behind, but the others were uncertain."

The members of this victorious team were :

A. A. Tod,	L. E. Parr,
C. M. Davies,	H. L. Riley,
L. E. Bury,	R. A. Cross,
J. H. A. Hope,	R. M. Hardy,
J. B. Van De Weyer,	R. H. Willan.
E. W. Bury,

Athletics. E. W. Bury was second in the Junior Mile, Half Mile, and Quarter.

Fives. Tod reached the final of the School Fives, the Keepers winning. For the House Cup also he and L. E. Parr reached the final. He ranked next to the Keepers, Parr was 5th in Choices.

Cricket. Tod redeemed spectacles against Winchester by scoring 33 and 96 against Harrow. For the House Cup the House was beaten in the third ties by Evans', scoring 62 and 104 against 86 and 82 for 6 wickets. In the 2nd innings Tod made 24, Riley 25, Cosens 25 not out, L. E. Bury took 7 wickets, Tod 5, Davies 3. Other matches are not recorded. Evans' subsequently divided chief honours with Hare's, as the match could not be finished.

1900-1.

Captain of the House, L. E. Bury (Sixth Form).

In 2nd Upper Club, L. E. Bury, H. L. Riley.

In Mixed Wall, L. E. Bury, R. H. Willan 12th man.

E. W. Bury won the Single Racquets.

Under the charge of L. E. Bury, the House Chronicles, which from 1894 had been kept only in brief, and for 1899-1900 are a blank, become once more adequate.

Football. There remained from the victorious eleven of the previous year L. E. Bury, his fifth year, E. W. Bury, R. H. Willan and H. L. Riley. The House beat Porter's in the first ties for the Cup, but for the next match, against Williams', it was unlucky enough to lose the services, not only of Riley, but also of Richardson and MacNaghten, the two next in order. The cause of the misfortune was an outbreak of scarlet fever. Nevertheless it was only beaten by a goal and a rouge after a hard fight. The winners "played 3 hours and 20 minutes" against Hare's, who won the Cup.

Racquets. E. W. Bury and R. H. Willan reached the ante-final for the House Cup.

Fives. Riley and G. P. Cosens represented the House and reached the third ties.

Cricket. Having no bowling the House failed to pass the first ties for the Cup.

1901-2.

Captain of the House, G. P. Cosens (First Hundred).

In the Victory, A. C. R. S. MacNaghten.

In the Field and Keeper of Racquets, E. W. Bury.

Football. The House suffered this year for want of behinds. It beat Heygate's, but lost to Bowlby's, who had three in the Field. Bury, Cosens, Chisenhale-Marsh, Symons-Jeune, and W. N. Tod were the most conspicuous.

Racquets. In the House Cup Bury and Cosens reached the final, but were then easily beaten by Brinton's.

Fives. The same pair was beaten by Donaldson's in the second ties for the House Cup. Cosens was 14th in Choices.

Athletics. B. H. B. Symons-Jeune won the Quarter.

Cricket. The House beat Benson's, but lost in the second ties to Impey's, who, with 268 to their credit, had an innings to spare. C. F. Penton made 25 and 34, Portal 23, Bury 20, W. N. Tod took 6 wickets, Bury 3, Yeo 1.

For the Junior Cup the House reached the final. In this match, against Tatham's, H. L. Phillips made 15 and 10, Baggallay 26, but the scores were only 58 and 74 against Tatham's 100 and 142. Phillips took 8 wickets, Yeo 7, Boyd-Rochfort, Penton and C. A. Gold one each.

This year was instituted the Old Boys' Dinner, due to the inspiration and energy of E. L. Churchill.

1902-3.

Captain of the House, G. P. Cosens (Sixth Form) till Easter, then W. G. Ormsby-Gore (First Hundred).

In the XI., W. N. Tod.

Keeper of the Field and Racquets, E. W. Bury.

Football. For the Cup the House beat Benson's after a fine struggle by a rouge, but then lost to Donaldson's, who reached the final, by two rouges. Cosens was Bury's best backer.

Racquets. Bury's second in the House Competition, Boyd-Rochfort, was not up to the form required for success. They were beaten in the second ties.

Cricket. The House was beaten in the first ties by Byrne's. The score is not preserved. Indeed, for the Summer Half the House-book is a blank, but there appears to be nothing beyond the above to record.

Michaelmas 1903.

Captain of the House, J. C. Brand (Army Class I).
Keeper of the Field and Racquets and President of the Eton Society,
E. W. Bury.
Old Choice in the XI., W. N. Tod.

Football. Captained by Bury, "one of the very best forwards of recent years," says the Chronicle, the House team was a good one, but bad luck once more pursued it, as illness deprived it of the services of Penton and H. L. Phillips, two of its best players, and of Johnson. Nevertheless it beat Radcliffe's, after a tie, and was then beaten by Somerville's by one rouge only after a very close match. Had Penton returned in time, the result would probably have been different, as it was, the behinds were helpless. "Bury," says the Chronicle, "was very good indeed, and was well backed up by Gold."

The last of the old Boys' matches took place on Nov. 21st. It was notable for the participation in it of W. S. Chisenhale-Marsh, who, with L. M. Powell, had instituted these matches a quarter of a century before, and who had a son playing on the same side. He played manfully and with great effect at post the whole time. A close and exciting contest ended in a victory for the House by one goal, gained just before time by a charitable miscalculation on the part of that other enthusiastic Leighite, E. L. Churchill.

Racquets. At its last opportunity the House succeeded in winning the Cup, and with considerable ease, Bury being well backed by Tod.

Fives. H. S. E. Bury and De Beistegui reached the ante-final of the Junior House Competition.

Thus came to an honourable end the House which for several years was the best in Eton under the best Master. The motto used to conclude the Chronicle of each Half in the House Books is "Floreat Etona et haec nostra domus esto perpetua." A vain wish, the latter, but if we amend with genitives and "memoria," the vanity vanishes. If this record shall serve to remind later Eton houses that "vixere fortes ante Agamemnona," and to keep in some measure the example of "Austen Leigh's" before them, the pains of those who kept the House Chronicles and of the present abstractor will be well rewarded.
